

CCAS Deans ListServ Protocol and Policies

LIST: ccas-deans@lists.wm.edu

HOW the LISTSERV WORKS

This is an unmoderated list. Those eligible to subscribe to the CCAS Deans ListServ are CCAS member deans, associate deans and assistant deans. Those no longer meeting the eligibility requirements should write to ccas@wm.edu to be removed from the list.

Postings receiving at least five responses will be summarized and archived on the Deans Knowledge Base (DKB) at ccas.net>Resources. (Discussions of specific vendor products will not be posted.) Members can read the summaries after logging in with their personalized ID.

PURPOSES of the CCAS DEANS LISTSERV

- 1) To query fellow deans about institutional practices and policies
- 2) To help form multi-institutional panels for the CCAS Annual Meeting
- 3) To seek names of faculty who might serve as peer reviewers for promotion and tenure decisions
- 4) To survey others about institutional practices. Typically, instructions indicate that responders should send responses directly to the sender rather than posting to the ListServ
- 5) Please refrain from posting
  - Job announcements
  - Notices of conferences offered by other parties

ADVICE

- Be sure the Subject line clearly and concisely states the actual topic you are addressing.
- Consider searching the DKB prior to posting to see if the topic has recently been discussed, or to fine-tune your query based upon what is not covered in a similar discussion thread.
- Postings that are concise and don't require long, detailed responses receive the most activity.
- Use a signature tag that includes your full name, affiliation, and e-mail address. Including your email address is particularly important so that someone can respond to you off-line.
- In no case should messages be forwarded or copied to others outside the list without the consent of the person posting the original message.
- Hitting Reply will send your message to everyone on the list. To respond to an individual, write directly to the poster's email address.
- Refrain from sending personal comments such as, "me, too," "thank you," etc. Only reply to the entire list if it benefits everyone.

ISSUES with POSTING

The ListServ will only recognize emails from subscribers. Occasionally a dean is subscribed under an email that differs from his/her outgoing alias email (which you may not realize). If you receive an error message, forward it to ccas@wm.edu so that the issue can be resolved.

Requests for changes to your subscription

- To be removed from the list, write to ccas@wm.edu.
- If you prefer to receive a single email daily (a digest) rather than each individual posting and response, please so request to ccas@wm.edu.
