Change The Magazine of Higher Learning

Editor:
Margaret A. Miller
Curry School of the University of Virginia

Change is a magazine dealing with contemporary issues in higher learning. It is intended to stimulate and inform reflective practitioners in colleges, universities, corporations, government, and elsewhere. Using a magazine format rather than that of an academic journal, Change spotlights trends, provides new insights and ideas, and analyzes the implications of educational programs, policies, and practices.

Change magazine has a partnership with The Council of Colleges of Arts and Sciences (CCAS). Founded in 1965, CCAS is a national association of baccalaureate degree-granting college of arts and sciences whose purpose is to sustain the arts and sciences as leading influence in American higher education.
